Misuse of powers by field officers

2601. SHRI ABANI ROY: Will the Minister of PETROLEUM AND NATURAL GAS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the Oil Corporation's field officers have been given vast powers under the RMDG and MDG;

(b) whether the same are oftenly misused by them and honest dealers are also harassed and penalty are imposed on the dealers without information even to dealers;

(c) what is the mode of appeal in case the penalties are imposed on dealers;

(d) whether the dealers are given opportunities to explain the charges framed against them; and

(e) how much period for the appeal is granted and the detail procedure for the same?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PETROLEUM AND NATURAL GAS (SHRI SANTOSH KUMAR GANGWAR): (a) to (e) Oil companies had successively formulated Marketing Discipline Guidelines of 1982/1995 and the Revised Marketing Discipline Guidelines, 1998 for marketing of petroleum products by dealers/ dis- tributors. According to the MDG, the field officers are required to inspect and monitor the dealerships/distributorships to ensure that customers get the correct quality and quantity of the product, etc. In case of any irregularities, the dealer's written explanation is sought and action is taken if the explanation is not found satisfcatory. As per MDG 1998, every punitive action would be taken after giving show cause notice of minimum 7 days. However, at present implementation of Marketing Disciplines Guidelines, 1995 and Revised Marketing Discipline guidelines, 1998 has been stayed by the Delhi High Court. Therefore, action against the erring dealers is being taken in accordance with dealership agreements.
